Module II Lecture Guide Community and Class

→ Introduction through Film and Literature

- I. Immigration
  - A. Sources of Immigrants
  - B. Reasons for Migration within US
    - Local conditions ("push" factors):
       Conditions in medium and large cities ("pull" factors)
  - C. Foreign Immigration
    - 1. First-Wave Immigrants
    - 2. Second-Wave Immigrants
    - 3. Third-Wave Immigrants: Who are they?
    - 4. What is "clientelistic hostility"?

Could You Become an American?

- II. Income Inequality: A Dual Nation
  - A. Basic Elements of Social Stratification
    - 1. Social stratification in the preindustrial city
    - 2. Various ranks of society in the American city from colonial era through 1800s
  - B. Changing conditions affecting class conditions in the industrialized city
    - 1. Feudalism
    - 2. Mercantilism and development of merchant class (1500s), living in cities (bourgs) = bourgeoisie
    - 3. Protoindustrial era
    - 4. Industrial Revolution & technological changes in the means of production (1780-1900)
    - 5. Rise of mass production, decline of cottage industry, more pronounced division of labor
    - 6. End of slavery (1860s)
    - 7. Migration, urbanization, and transience
    - 8. Changing ideas about poverty
- III. Theories of Social Stratification
  - A. Karl Marx, 1818-1883
    - 1. Capitalists or Bourgeoisie
      - a. means of production
      - b. hegemony and ruling class ideology
    - 2. The Proletariat (working class)
    - 3. Class consciousness

- Max Weber, 1864-1920
- 1. Western capitalism involves rational bureaucracy: rational bourgeois capitalism
- 2. Bureaucratization ==> depersonalization of individual
- 3. Social stratification based on interaction between:
  - a. economic order (economic/income class)
  - b. prestige order (status)
  - c. political order (power)
- IV. Socioeconomic Status

В.

- A. How the Bureau of Labor Classifies Occupations (Standard Occupational Classifications)
- B. Poverty According to the U.S. Census
- V. The Poor: Who, Why, and What To Do?
  - A. Who are they?
  - B. Why are people poor?
  - C. What antipoverty programs have been tried? Why don't they work?
- VI. From Rural to Urban

From Frostbelt (or Rustbelt) to Sunbelt
From Urban to Suburban
From Suburban to Exurban...
...and back again

VII. Socioeconomic Trends