

Name _____

Chapter 10 Practice Quiz: Parallelism

Complete each of the following sentences by adding a construction that is parallel to the underlined construction.

Example: Christy ordered a hamburger, a small chef's salad, and

Christy ordered a hamburger, a small chef's salad, and a cup of coffee.

1. The train was crowded with students going home to be with their parents during the holidays or _____

2. Dad wondered whether he could see the second half of the game and still _____

3. Not only does the girl ask countless questions but also _____

4. The hats and coats were piled everywhere: on the beds, on the chairs, and even _____

5. During our coffee break this morning, we had blueberry muffins that were small but _____

6. Reggie will either have to study after we get back from the show or _____

7. Diggins was an entrepreneur at heart; nevertheless, _____

8. The plan was to cross the English Channel by hydrofoil, rent a car, and then _____

9. Looking out the window, I saw several boys from the neighborhood playing a pickup game of basketball during the morning but _____

10. Dennelle knew neither what to say in her letter of application nor _____

Name _____

Chapter 10 Practice Quiz: Answers

Answers will vary.

1. heading to the beaches for a vacation with friends.
2. manage to get in eight hours of sleep.
3. she also asks them in a tone of voice that demands an immediate answer.
4. on the floor.
5. delicious.
6. have to get up early and study before breakfast.
7. he found himself hard at work for General Motors.
8. head for the Swiss Alps.
9. leaving to go to Greg's Grill at lunch time.
10. where to address it.